CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

It shall be the policy of SLOC that all persons in leadership roles (including, but not limited to, Board Members, Committee Chair Persons, Producers, Directors, Assistant Directors, Musical Directors, and Choreographers) shall uphold professional standards of behavior including conducting themselves at all times with decorum and civility. Professional standards of behavior include holding all leaders to high levels of respectability and politesse. A formal written complaint must be submitted to the Board of Directors in any case involving a perceived breach of this code of conduct policy.
